When Sorrow Sang

Blind Guardian

So let me out of it, out of the cold
To bring back light and hope for all
And so if I could get you in Just for a little whileInto the song of sorrow, you might understand
Where am I know beyond the dawn
Where hope's turned to dust at all
Immortal love's fooled by the hands of doom
That love means death, I realized too soonCaught in the afterlife, I've gone too far
When sorrow sang softly and sweet
The air was filled with tears full of sadness and grief
When sorrow sang softly and sweetI feel like screaming
But I can't breath in, shall I wane right now
I will not leave this world of living
Till she said, goodbyeOut in the cold, I still wait for her call
And her last kiss it shall be release
I can't forget her her face will not leave
From the depths of my soul, I long for herCaught in the afterlife, I've gone too far
When sorrow sang softly and sweet
The air was filled with tears full of sadness and grief
When sorrow sang softly and sweetSo I heard all about it
Her voice's so clear
She's woven both themes in there
Moved me to tearsThe world shall hear this sad song
Song of sorrow song of grief
Can't change the way of his kind
Can't change the way of her kindCaught in the afterlife, I've gone too far
When sorrow sang softly and sweet
The air was filled with tears full of sadness and grief
When sorrow sang softly and sweet

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/