

Sunlight

Josh Hoke

Don't know who I can trust, I've nothing I can sell
One of these ways is up, not sure which one
Hard to see with your eyes wide shut, honesty on my tongue
Nothing stays and the warmth will fadeSunlight, sunlight awakening
Sun lie, sun lie over meFind a better way, we could see for miles
Step out on the clay in our bare feet
Hard to say in the breaking dusk, a new day will arise
Skirt up to your knees, laughing at meWalls can't hold us and time erodes
We are a great parade
