Natural

Infusion

I got a need, for something new
I got a need, that says it's you
I got a hunger, or has a hunger got me?
I get crazy, when I like what I see
I got your name, I like how it sounds
I get restless, 'till you come around
I get going, will I ever stop?
I get down and you come and fire me upAnd I know what I feel should be natural
And I know what I feel should be naturalYou're getting happy, from the look on your face
You got honey, and I love the taste
You got a secret, but you're not telling me
You got everything, where it's meant to be
You got my keys, for when the nights are long
And you got me, and that's your plan all along
You get me going, and I will never stop
You get me down and I come and fire you upAnd I know what I feel should be natural
And I know what I feel should be natural
And I know what I feel should be natural
And I know what I feel should be naturalAnd I know what I feel should be natural
And I know what I feel should be natural
And I know what I feel should be natural
And I know what I feel should be naturalAnd I know what I feel should be natural
And I know what I feel should be natural
And I know what I feel should be natural
And I know what I feel should be natural
