

Between the lines

Xtrunk

How can I define?
How can I've much time?
To say all I feel, describe what I leave
We can't pass by our life
By whose growing sweet hope
The beginningOne to one with the unknown
Reading between the linesHow can I write?
How can I carve?
I just can trust my damned faith to serve
By soul temptation
For our self decisions
Leading our convictions
For future redemptionOne to one with the unknown
Reading between the lines
Down on him the false permissions
I can see the weak purgationHow can I write?
How can I carve?
I just can trust my damned faith to serve
By soul temptation
For our self decisions
Leading our convictions
For future redemptionUnderstanding fear's coming
Slaving domination's starting
Society march... "Price must be paid"
Hacking liberty truncated
Manipulate the masses
Exploited sorrow, troubles often used
