Downtime

Mitch Haupers

I haven't been myself these days
According to friends I tend to lose a part of me
When my heart is on the mend
I'll be alright, it's safe to say
'Cause just like your love, this is only a phaseWell, I've been down this road a time or two it's nothin' new
Well, I'll get on my feet and over you
I tell myself that everything will be just fine
Oh, I'm just goin' through a little downtimeSome might think I've gotten caught up
In heartache's aftermath
But your memory's taken second
To a good book and nice long bath
I must admit it threw me at first
But I'm convinced, I'm over the worstOh, I've been down this road a time or two it's nothin' new
Oh, I'll get on my feet and over you
I tell myself that everything will be just fine
Oh, I'm just goin' through a little downtimeWell, time is meant to play the part
In taking care of broken heartsOh, I've been down this road a time or two it's nothin' new
Oh, I'll get on my feet and over you
Oh, I tell myself that everything will be just fine
Oh, I'm just goin' through a little
Oh, I'm just goin' through a little
Oh, I'm just goin' through a little downtime
