

Soft Place In My Heart

Buddy Holly

I've got a soft place in my heart for you
And the dreams it's caused no one will ever know I guess, you know dear, my love has always been true
Now there's nothing left to say or do but go These bitter tears I've shed for you are all in vain
But if you decide you want me back again Just come back dear and I'll no longer be so blue
I've got a soft place in my heart, my darling for you
