Let It Rise

Schiller

All I want
All I get
Let it be captured
In my heart
World on fire
World of pain
Find myself wanting
You again
All I want
All I need
Let it be captured
In my heart
All I want
All I give
Let it be captured
In my heart
Slip my hand
Up inside
Cradle the soul
That you hide
From my eyes
I can see
So many things
That you want
That you need
I can give
Let it be captured
In my heart
Let it be captured
In my heart
Let it be captured
In my heart
Let it be captured
In my heart
All I want
All I give
Let it be captured
In my heart
Let it be captured

In my heart
In my heart
In my heart, in my heart
In my heart
In my heart
In my heart
In my heart
