Different Situation

Athenaeum

He'll take you home and then write a song about it
He's so alone, you'd never think to doubt it
He is the tricky kind and she's gonna fall into his covers
He's gonna search his mind, he will find a way to love herIn his mind, he's written every line, he just recycles them all the time
It's a message that sweeps the nation, same words, different situationHe'll make demands, at first you'll be so willing
But take command, your pride is not worth killing
He's gonna make it hard and twist your words until they crumble
It's is a work of art, the way you jump at all he mumblesIn his mind, he's written every line, he just recycles them all the time
It's a message that sweeps the nation, same words, different situationAnd if you get stuck with a millionaire, you can always come home
There'll be a place for you at a table for two if you ever feel aloneIn his mind, he's written every line, he just recycles them all the time
It's a message that sweeps the nation, same words, different situationIt's gonna take a while to sew the wounds that he had opened
But you're a lucky child, so all you do is keep on hoping

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/