

Drug Store Woman

John Lee Hooker

Yeah
All I want to know
The drug store girl
Every time you see her
She is in the drug store
Buying lipstick and powder
All that makeup und that stuff
Nylon and hose
All that prÃ©cis stuff
I want that kind of woman
I want that kind of woman
When I come home
My dinner is ready
My bathwater is ready
Everything is ready
She sitten down
Watchin' TV
Say daddy, are you tired?
I say yeah
But when I see you, they goes away
That's what I now want know
The Drug Store girl
Every time you see her
She buying lipstick and powder
And all that prÃ©cis stuff
The kind of woman I've got
Is a ever day girl
She don't wear that prÃ©cis stuff
Lipstick and powder
Got a natural woman
Yeah
Now
Drug Store Woman
I don't want
No drug store girl
No
Yeah
Ah
When I come home

She's always at home
She isn't on the street
Both, night and day
I don't have to eat no
TV channel
She had everything ready
Right down, waiting for me
Yeah
I wouldn't have it
No drug store girl
Every time you see her
She's in the drug store
Buying makeup and that stuff
Lipstick and powder
YeahOh
