Just Us

Solvo Animus

If I put you back to bed will you promise not to scream
It hurts my head when I cant dream
You were so polite before, at dinner I was sure
You'd be mine, just us for good

And I swear I will not cross the line
And I can't believe my eyes, you're trembling
And oh

If in fact you barely mind, could we stop the car
It hurts traveling this far
Two last known dinosaurs meant to collide, you and I
Just us for good

And I swear I will not cross the line
And I can't believe the ice is cracking now
And oh

A goodbye rose, I'd follow you into the static
A goodbye rose, I'd follow you anywhere, you're my static
