Miserole

Emily Hope Price

Tonight, tonight far away from home
I saw the stars shine just for you
Tonight, tonight lines in the pavement
They mark the way perfectly

Tonight tonight all of the way home
Your ghost I thought I heard, whispering
My love my love, think of me slowly
And you, Iâ€™ll catch easily

And so, keep the light on
And oh, let us sleep till Sunday
Weâ€™re standing in the garden
With hands on hearts weâ€™re coming home(?)

Tonight, tonight, all of the world goes by, and I would sing I would sing just for you
Goodnight, goodnight, how I will miss you
May all the world forgive forgive us

Forgive us and leave the light on
And oh, let us sleep â€˜till Sunday
Weâ€™re standing in the garden
With hands on hearts weâ€™re coming home
