Bring It On

Light Up The Sky

So let me go
You can't tell me who
I'm supposed to be
But I can't find the words to tell you
The only one
Is meBring on the fucking noise
Why don't you feel the same?
My love I can't explainI'll remove the chains
Of doubt upon my name
I dare you stand in my wayEnough is enough
I just had enough
My heart can't take much more
Of your heart lacking love
I've tried, to reason
I'm trying to seeWhy can't you imagine
A successful meSo let me go
You can't tell me who
I'm supposed to be
But I can't find the words to tell you
The only one
Is meI let the words rush out
I let the pain ignite
The fire inside my heart
That caused a blinding light
I will never be hopeless again
I will never be hopeless againFate
Our destiny is what binds us all
Our hearts become hopeless as we fall
Into a lie called doubt
Sing it loud
You're better than life has made you
OutSo let me go
You can't tell me who
I'm supposed to be
But I can't find the words to tell you
The only one
Is meSince I know that you won't be here
When I fall
Then I know you won't be here

When I'm standing tallWhy don't you believe in me
You could never see
That I'm the only one
I won't ever let life beat meYeahI don't approve so let me show you
We're not just playing boys
Bring on the fucking noiseYou ever think I want to be Anything like you
Take a second to think
Oh
Take a second to thinkI tried to get you to listen to me
But you never would listen
You never would listen
You said to go out
And see the world for myself
And I am now
And I found what I want
I found what I wantSo let me go
I'm supposed to be
The only one
Is meSince I know that you won't be here
When I fall
Then I know you won't be here
When I'm standing tallWhy don't you believe in me
You could never see
That I'm the only one
I won't ever let life beat me
