

Sinner's Prayer

Sully Erna

To love the right, yet do so wrong.
To be the weak, yet burn to be so strong.go rider, although your ride has been through life.
go rider, i see your soul through the devils eyes.if i could live my life again, would i have lived that life in sin?go rider, go ride into the night go rider, now see your soul through a woman's eyesi am a sinner hold my prayers up to the sun i am a sinner heavens closed for what I've donewhat have i done what have i done?i am sinner hold my prayers up to the sun i am sinner heavens closed for what I've doneheavens closed for what I've done
