

Janie's Not Alone

Gotthard

Hard times, shadow of a street light
Dark eyes, stealing to survive
God knows with a pocket full of hope she goes
Young life, closing all around her
Shell be twelve, somewhere round June
No chance for a child growing up too soon
And she never felt love from someone
Never had love before
Just another cry of desperation
That no one stands up for
Janies not alone
Shes not the only one, who lives a life in misery
Janies not alone
All she can do is run that seems to be her destiny
No mother, no father
She calls for angels but the angels cry
No chance, I guess that she was born to lose, yeah
And she never felt love from someone
Never had love before
Can we ever stop the tears from falling
So she wont cry no more
Janies not alone
Shes not the only one, who lives a life in misery
Janies on her own
All she can do is run that seems to be her destiny
Destiny
And she never felt love from someone
Oh, never had love before
Just another cry of desperation
That no one stands up for
Janies not alone
Shes not the only one, who lives a life in misery
Janies on her own
All she can do is run that seems to be her destiny
Janies not alone
But she keeps holdin on, its not how it was meant to be
Janies on her own
All she can do is run that seems to be her destiny
Janies not alone
Destiny
Janies not alone
Janies not alone
Janies not alone
Janies not alone
No, no, no
Janies not alone
