Beautiful Pain

The Tears

I'm shaking and making and talking to the sky
I shiver in the night that I can't see
You're as dark as the mascara that you slap on your eyes
Look what you've done to meYou're as dark as the ocean
As cold as the rain
You've got me weak with emotion
You're such a beautiful pain
Such beautiful painSo I shelter in the wardrobe
And shiver on the stairs
And I slide down in the gutter with ease
I tried to talk to God as if he really is there
Look what you've done to meYou're as dark as the ocean
As cold as the rain
You've got me weak with emotion
You're such a beautiful pain
Such beautiful painAnd I cling to my pillow
And scratch at my veins
You kiss like a killer
Such a beautiful pain
Such a beautiful pain
Beautiful painYou're as dark as the ocean
As hard as the rain
You've got me weak with emotion
You're such a beautiful pain
Such beautiful painAnd I cling to my pillow
And scratch out my veins
You kiss like a killer
Such a beautiful pain
