Normal

The Tiger Lillies

Normal the trouble, normal the fear
Normal the distress, normal the tears
Normal the yearning when you go away
Normal, you want them to stayAnd these tears that run down your face
Hide them, it's a disgraceNormal, your blunting of mind
Normal, your lust and normal, you're blind
And normal, you crave for what you can't have Normal, you're feeling sadAnd these tears that run down your face
Hide them, it's a disgraceNormal, your decline and slide
Normal, your loss of pride
And normal, you want to scream
Normal, you're a machineAnd these tears that run down your face
Hide them, it's a disgraceA disgrace, a disgrace
A disgrace, a disgrace
