Will You Be There

K'jon

FIRST VERSE
I've been looking for someone to be there when the waters rise
Not just when the skies are clear
But When the tears form in my eyes
Sometimes its rough but strange enough
You see through all the pain
I know you're somewhere out there can you be my umbrella in my life?
CHORUS
will you be there
when the storm clouds roll in
when the nights get colder
will you be there
to be the one I'm holding
I need ya, where are ya
will you be there
when the winds are blowing
will you be there
you feel the changes coming
will you be there
Just tell me so
All I want to know is....
Can you stand away
SECOND VERSE
Life can be soooo suffocating
it makes it hard to breathe
And Love is over-rated for the one whose don't believe
But I know...
... somewhere out there
What I want, will Surely find me Like the eye of a hurricane will you be the piece that I need
I won't give up...
When I find ya I ain't going no where taking my time...
When the weather is raging .. hope you'll be there
When you're in my life I won't be ashamed
Will you be my umbrella in my life?

CHORUS
will you be there
when the storm clouds roll in..
will you be there
when the nights get colder

to be the one I'm holding
will you be there
will you be there
Just tell me so
All I want to know is
Can you stand away.
THIRD VERSE*
In the sunlight...
... kisses the sky
And the clouds clear...
girl I know you are gonna be here...
with me through adversities..
if this feeling stays the same only then I know that you can stand away
* CHORUS AFTER THIRD VERSE, MORE EMOTION (CLIMB)
will you be there
when the nights get colder
will you be there
to be the one I'm holding
will you be there
will you be there
Just tell me so
All I want to know is....
Can you stand away
4TH LAST VERSE, END
And the walls fall crashing
Could your love ever last it I been looking for someone
Is it you, is it you girl

is it you, Hope it's you girl
Is it you, is it you girl
Is it you, Hope it's you girl
All I want to know is....
Can you stand away
