Revenge

Ministry

pushed me off the dirty floor you watched as my head hit the floor you watched as I rolled round and round you watched as I came tumbling down you watched as I rolled down the stairs you never wished me - fare thee well! you watched as I got on my feet I ran towards her and she started to plead, no!ain't got time for what you feelyou did it again you did it again
you did it again and again and again, ho, ho!far below original sin far below the state i'm in far below malicious crimes far below her for the time far below
far below is the place you'll go, ho!ain't got time for what you feelyou did it again
you did it again
you did it again and again and again, ho, ho!oh went through the window, quiet as a mouse no sound was stirring throughout the house i'd heard a noise that made me startle but I kept on walking down the corridor yes the corridor
and there you were with a man once more, no!ain't got time for what you feelyou did it again
you did it again
you did it again and again and again
you did it again
you did it again
you did it again and again and again, ho, ho!
