

Divine

The Mulder

Not of this world entirely
Heaven sent, you are my deity
Lived through all the romance sadly meant for me
 All I need is a sign
 Make your presence known to mine
 Come to me, I will be divine
 I wear the spell you put on me
 Like a charm no one else can see
 Keeps away the wicked badly meant for me
 All I need is a sign
 Make your presence known to mine
 Come to me and I will be divine
 And when I thought my fire finally died
 I felt your spell tight as ever, tied

No one is above the rituals of love
Temptation calls and the stars fall from the blue
There is no limitation except for me and you
 Lived through all the romance
 Sadly meant for me
 All I need is a sign
 Make your presence known to mine
 Come to me and I will be divine
 All I need is a sign
 Make your presence known to mine
 Come to me and I will be divine
 All I need is a sign
 Make your presence known to mine
 Come to me and I will be divine
