

Kenny

Sicko

Kenny you almost made it, I'd say you were halfway there Kenny your hands are frozen, and this is so unfair What would you do,
given a chance to meet God?
Where did you go, why did you die,
I was a doctor, so where was I? Kenny the moment's passed us by, moments turn to days Turning confidence away, self assuredness to shame What would you do,
given a chance to meet God?
Where did you go, why did you die,
I was a doctor, so where was... Where was I?
