Things Will Never Be the Same (Instrumental)

Got A Girl

Stop, please stay no more
And when you leave please close the door
I don't wanna know what a waste you're there
Beyond these walls I'm not to careYou're with me so keep your hands cleanYes, I know my place
Dying more with each embrace
Dim my lights, stay in the dark
To keep my mind when we're apartYour secret's safe with me
Cause I don't wanna knowI can't believe you'll do such a thing
That I'm made to fear your name
No I can't believe what is killing me
Is that we'll never be the sameLook, make no mistake
This blindness I am forced to fake
I'll take your battered knuckles and your swollen ego
I'm in this far too deep to let goBabe did you do it all for meYou, did you stop to see
The fool that you have made of me
Am I a trophy girl, am I a little flower
That you use to show the world your powerMaybe soon you'll see the real me
How much I really knowI can't believe you'll do such a thing
That I'm made to fear your name
No I can't believe what is killing me
Is that we'll never be the sameDon't know why but I still love you
Even though I know one day I'll rise above youI can't believe you'll do such a thing
That I'm made to fear your name
No I can't believe what is killing me
Is that we'll never be the same
