Revelation

Token Entry

Revelations

I know that you can't hurt me no reason to even try you're so many miles away from me it's a distance you can't ride not something you could measure cause it's down in black and white but more a kind of thinking so that we won't have to fight

My actions and my thoughts they don't include you or your kind because your shallow thinking closes open minds

Just because i'm kind to you doesn't mean that i am meek you really don't know us to well if you think that we are weak i won't stand for your hostility negativity nor the rest stand with my hands tied and a target on my chest so i keep you in my past from where you can't escape from where you cannot hurt and we won't have to hate

This time you can't hurt me because i stand prepared the past cannot endanger me and neither can your stares
