Irrational

Blush

I get stuck on finding words
My heartbeat won't let them out
It's always so much work
Whenever you are aroundI keep cool but it's showing through
These feelings I'm feeling for you
Are too much they're starting to show
I need you to knowOoh, you make me completely irrational
And it feels insanely so natural
Like falling hard
And never landing
Right from the start
Don't understand it
You make me completely irrationalI just want you on my skin
And under my heavy heart
I wanna let you in
Every way and every partI keep cool but it's showing through
These feelings I'm feeling for you
Are too much they're starting to show
I need you to knowOoh, you make me completely irrational
And it feels insanely so natural
Like falling hard
And never landing
Right from the start
Don't understand it
You make me completely irrationalOh, ooooh, oh, ooh.You make me completely irrational
And it feels insanely so natural
Like falling hard
And never landing
Right from the start
Don't understand it
You make mu completely irrational
