Punchdrunk Lovesick Singalong

Radiohead

I wrapped you inside my coat
When they came to firebomb the house
I didn't feel pain 'cause no one can touch me
Now that I'm held in your spellA beautiful girl
A beautiful girl can turn your world to dustSell me a car that goes
Sell me a house that stands up
I never cared before, I never cared before
I never cared before, before, beforeA beautiful girl
A beautiful girl can turn your world into dust
A beautiful girl
A beautiful girl can turn your world into dustI stood in front of her face
When the first bullet was shot
