

Don't Speak

Jonas Brothers

(Whoa)I thought
I was cool
But I just
Looked a fool for so long
Now you're gone
Now you're gone
YeahDon't speak
To me
Don't speak
To meI recall
All the fights
Most of all
All the times you would lie
In my arms
Now you're gone
You're gone, yeahDon't speak
To me
Don't be
My AimThere's a lot that you don't notice
When you read between the lines
The future's out of focus,
When you're blinded by the light.
It's a hope for all the hopeless
In the worst of trying times
I resort to being speechless
'Cause I don't want to lie
Yeah, our love won't surviveDon't speak a wordDon't speak
To me
Don't speak
To meThere's a lot that you don't notice
When you read between the lines
The future's out of focus,
When you're blinded by the light.
It's a hope for all the hopeless
(Hope for all the hopeless)
In the worst of trying times
(Worst of trying times)
I resort to being speechless

'Cause I don't want to lie
