Lust For Life (Remastered)

Gamma Ray

Comin' out of misery,
back to the old energy,
takin' part in our daily show.
Think of what has been before,
made a move and slammed the door.
Future will remain in the unknown.Face the face of the race, try to understand.
Why are we here and what do we want,
The answer is easy, let's spread it around.Loud and proud, we're gonna say it now,
Live-Life-EasyMany things to think about,
bring me up or bring me down
A lot of things I hardly understand.
What is good and what is fair,
problems solved, but I don't care
Sometimes it's just getting out of hand.Face the face of the race, try to understand.
I know that you know that we can be strong
If we pull together, we can get alongLet us fly away, let us praise the days
When the lust for the life is stronger than the fear.
Though we shiver and shake and we sometimes need a break.
It's the lust for life that never disappears.
