Haters Gonna Hate

Chunk! No, Captain Chunk!

What do you expect from all the shit you say?
How will you nail 'bout lies that you spread everyday?
(When we'll be face to face)
How will you pretend that you didn't wanna play the game?
Well you should spread the word:Is that the best that it came to?
No one cares
I won't forget that I don't know you
When you cryGet up, open your eyes, you're just like everyone
You waste all your time faking your smiles
Wake up, look at your life you starting to fuck mine
Here is my advice, get the fuck out'Cause no one cares 'bout what you say
Talk is cheap you words won't stay
Who are you to say that "what have you done darling your whole life?"
No matter what you breath in
All you want to do keep it real
Anything you've done now will be destroyed,Wanna say waste
They do the same to anyone
How do you feel now?
Watch out, what you sayGet up, open your eyes, you're just like everyone
You waste all your time faking your smiles
Wake up, look at your life you starting to fuck mine
Here is my advice, get the fuck outYou can't take words back
How can you ignore that?
This is all the same
All you haters gonna hate
Go!I'm sick of your pride
Pride...
I'm sick of your pride
I'm sick of your pride
I'm sick of your prideWhen will you nail 'bout lies that you spread everyday?
Why would you pretend that it didn't wanna play the game?Get up, open your eyes, you're just like everyone
You waste all your time faking your smiles
Get up, open your eyes, you're just like everyone
You waste all your time faking your smiles
Wake up, look at your life you starting to fuck mine
Here is my advice, get the fuck out
