

The Introvert Song

The Good Advice Cupcake

This is the opening verse, so glad my plans were cancelled yeah! now i can sing inside and sing this sexy melody and then it's right into the chorus

I'm gonna wrap my self in a f*cking blanket!
On my own, in the zone!
I'm gonna tell my friends that i just can't make it
Pet my cat,
And watch my shows
I'm gonna decompress
Recharge, unwind
And lower my stress
Buttressed and I don't think I'm gettin' dressed
Social events leave me distressed
Nonetheless I'm the best!

This is the introvert song
This is the introvert song
This is the introvert song
This is the introvert song,
Oh-oh-oh

They say be the best version of yourself that you can be
And for me means staying in and watching some tv
It means order out, eating in,
I'll call some delivery
And drink my wine, have a good time

I'm gonna wrap my self in a f*cking blanket!
On my own, in the zone!
I'm gonna tell my friends that i just can't make it
Pet my cat,
And watch my shows
I'm gonna decompress
Recharge, unwind
And lower my stress
Buttressed and i I don't think I'm gettin' dressed
Social events leave me distressed
Nonetheless I'm the best!

This is the introvert song
