Past Life

Lost In the Trees

The sun pours from your eyes
We were killers in a past life
But it turned out alright Winter been so iceWrap your arms around Reaching for the light
The angels sings at night
The angels sings at nightRaining down upon my car
The tokens are not ours i'll run for us never run away Birds fly from your eyes you know its a staircase parked a car at night we'll crumble into flamesA lovers eyes never look away
I'm bleeding in my heart
you tell me that i'm safe when i realize that death is just a staircase i'm bleeding in my heart, my heart that nothing is for certain
