

See Her Again

J Boog

2 Months, 12 Days, 5 Hours since I didn't talk to you Girl I really gotta sing, It's been driving me crazy for a while

Cause each time she comes and goes
She leaves with a piece of me, and I try to tell myself
One day that she learns to love me I bet I'll never see her
She breaks my heart over and over again
but I still ask when will I see her again
I always thought we would be more than just friends
So I ask when will I see her again
Woah, ohh, oh whoa, ohh, oh whoa, ohh
When will I see her again
Woah, ohh, oh whoa, ohh, oh whoa, ohh
When will I see her again

I can't think of what I do wrong
Maybe she just put me in the friend zone yeah, and even though that my feeling strong
I think she only texts me when she feels lonely

Cause each time she comes and goes
She leaves with a piece of me, and I try to tell myself
One day that she learns to love me I bet I'll never see her
She breaks my heart over and over again
but I still ask when will I see her again
I always thought we would be more than just friends
So I ask when will I see her again
Woah, ohh, oh whoa, ohh, oh whoa, ohh
When will I see her again
Woah, ohh, oh whoa, ohh, oh whoa, ohh
When will I see her again

You've made me the one to watch you cry
When you get hurt by these other guys
And accuse me of, knowing that I
Can give you everything you need

Cause each time she comes and goes
She leaves with a piece of me, and I try to tell myself
One day that she learns to love me I bet I'll never see her

She breaks my heart over and over again
but I still ask when will I see her again
I always thought we would be more than just friends
So I ask when will I see her again
Woah, ohh, oh whoa, ohh, oh whoa, ohh
When will I see her again
Woah, ohh, oh whoa, ohh, oh whoa, ohh
When will I see her again
