

Pit Viper

10,000 Maniacs

In the cruel garrison of affection
If worth of lore is true
You know the face of a temptress Pit Viper
A witch or enchantress
Pit Viper
With the malign venom of conceit She tries civil men
Conceal fear misgivings
When night entreats them
A greater chill sustains
Stains her darkness Shall not inhibit death blow
Know this skin does not restrict her
Tear and shed the coil
Fall of garland leaves below the soil
