Decisions, Decisions

Cool Ethan

Decisions, decisions
Prepare for the incision
This will only hurt once
(But damn will it hurt)
And it wont stop
It wont stop for the rest of your lifeNow youre on the fast track, son
You put in your time
You put your dreams to rest
And youre dead inside
But Im alive tonight
Im alive tonightIs my tongue in cheek when I say,
Im gonna show you all someday?Im gonna show you all someday
Get back, get back, get back to where you belong
I know exactly what youll say
Give up, get up, get out, youre taking too long
You dont know
You just dont, you just dont
You dont knowOK lets take it from the top again
Listen to what I'm saying and just stop my friend
Cause Im not like them and Im sorry
But were getting nowhere with this pointless negativityIf its worth doing its not gonna be easy
(It won't be easy)
At least until somebody proves me wrong
Were gonna keep it up, keep it upIm gonna show you all someday
Get back, get back, get back to where you belong
I know exactly what youll say
Give up, get up, get out, youre taking too long
You dont know
You just dont, you just dont
You dont knowWere gonna show you all somedayIf I dont trade this in like all of them, all of them
In a year or two all that will be left of me
Is the shell of a failure who we all believed
Had so much potential up his sleeveWere gonna show you all someday
