

Annabelle

Fraternity

I crawl up and I crawl out of bed
Look in the mirror just to make sure I'm not dead
I'm still asleep
When I finally awake
I pray to whoever that I'm not too late
Where have I been?
Please don't take Annabelle away
Please don't take Annabelle away
Please don't take Annabelle away
And if you walk with me,
I will walk with you
And if you talk to me,
Then I will talk to you
And if you walk with me,
Then I will walk...
Look out my window
And it's kind of dark
Perfect day for a walk inside the park
I'll supply the rain
You ask me, I guess it ain't that bad
Living life out of a paper bag
Where have I been?

[illegible]

Then I will walk with you
And if you talk to me,
Then I will talk to you
And if you walk with me,
Then I will walk with you
