

Blue Marlins (Afgo Remix) [feat. Damon Trueitt]

JazzyFunk

I see your wings spread far apart
I know they're attached right to your heart
I feel some regret for holding you down here
I watch you look up into the sky
Knowing that rainbows are your life
I know you have made that sacrifice of color But if I let you leave (if I let you leave)
What will be of me? (what will be of me)
Floating here alone (floating here alone)
In the water (water, water) And if I let you go (if I let you go)
Who will be my home? (who will be my home)
You are all I know (you are all I know)
You're my order I can't fly
I've tried
For love
For you (2x) So goodbye (3x)
Oooohh There are no blue marlins in the sky
Gliding high (3x)
