Not a dream girl, not perfection
Never said I was from heaven
But baby I could be the closest that you met
(Y'all aint ready it's nicole)

Your always looking for that some one
That dont existed and he wasn't
What you want isn't always what you get (lets go)

You want your girl to give advice
But your always always right
You want her naughtier than nice
You dont ever want to fight
You want her haging out at home (uhue)
Even wen she's all alone (uhue)
You want everything but thats a dream
So te-hell mee (ladies)

Who's gonna love you baby?
Who's gonna be there for ya?
Who's gonna keep the faith the way that I do?
Who's gonna hold you down?
Pick you up off the ground
Who's gonna make your day the way that I do?
