Ah, one man hawk is another man dove
One hug is another man's shove
One man's rock is another man's sand
One man's fist is another man's handAh, one man's tool is another man's toy
One man's grief is another man's joy
One man's squawk is another man's sing
One man's crutch is another man's wingAh, one man's pride is another man's humble
One man's step is another man's stumble
One man's pleasure is another man's pain
And one man's loss is another man's gainOne man's can is another man's grail
One man's anchor is another man's sail
One man's right is another man's wrong
One man's curse is another man's songFor every father's daughter
For every mother's son
The only thing the same

And one man's art is another man's scrawl

One man's hammer is another man's nail
And one man's freedom is another man's jail
Ah, one man's road is another man's rut
One man's if is another man's but
One man's treasure is another man's trash
And one man's landin' is another man's crash
One man's word, another man's lie
