Just Between You and Me

Lou Gramm

Staring at each other with accusing eyes
Keep our voices low, don't act surprised
If the word gets out, yeah, that's alrightI know you're just looking for some sympathy
But listen you don't know how it gets back to me
You're getting reckless, girl, but that's alrightNow don't you know that one cold word
Is going to lead to another
And then we'll have nowhere to goEven if heaven and earth collide tonight
We'll be all alone in a different light
I don't care what the world can't see
It's just between you and meI see telltale signs of a love in decline
There should be something to say
But we don't take the time
And I don't understand, but that's alrightNow you can turn the page or you can tear me apart
Don't make an open book out of my private heart
You should know better now, but that's alrightDon't you know that one cold word
Is going to lead to another
And then we'll have nowhere to goEven if heaven and earth collide tonight
We'll be all alone in a different light
I don't care what the world can see
Because it's just between you and meIf we don't work this out we won't recover
We'll lose this soulful love for one another
But with all I've heard and all I seen
I'm still lost in your mysteryStaring at each other with accusing eyes
Keep our voices low, don't act surprised
If the word gets out, yeah, that's alrightDon't you know that one cold word
Is going to lead to another
And then we'll have nowhere to goEven if heaven and earth collide tonight
We'll be all alone in a different light
I don't care what the world can see
Because it's just between you and me
