Elsa Vs Sub Zero 2 Rap Battle

The Infinite Source

Sub-Zero:
The sub is back with another frozen flow that I can lay down
Elsa didn't learn her lesson-tell this girl to stay down
Beat you once, never even had to break a cold sweat
My victory was clear, guess little princess wasn't told yet
Show me back to Scorpion, spine rip my nemesis
I know you're only worried about the number of your blemishes
I almost feel guilty, for beating you another round
Face me for the ice throne, I'll wish you were never crowned

Elsa:
It's the queen that you're talking to, deadly but with beauty
Ruling over peasants like you,'cause it's my duty
Ninja versus queen, put you back in your place
And your rhymes are as thin as the mask on your face
Poised and I'm regal, underneath you'd never know
Tear a sub apart and then burry you under ice and snow
Had a mighty secret-now everything has come to light
Massacre immortal,
This combat will be your final fight!

Sub-Zero:
Massacre Immortal?
Not bad, but not good enough
You're Frozen in your tracks, A real killer has come to call your bluff
Once again it's up to me, Zero's come to save the beat
Dead before you know it, all powerful but I am discreet
You're whiny and your arrogant
You run around and sing and pout
Face me in battle and I'll give you something to cry about
Brace for the fatality, death is what I delt ya
Whisper to your cold grave, "In memory of Elsa"

Elsa:
You want a fatality?
Your turn to get an icy blast
I don't even need to fight, Anna could kick your pansy ass
Arctic with the word-play, bitter when I throw a jab
Leave you numb and shivering, the coldest foe you ever had!

Mightier than anyone the Earth-realm could throw at me
Frosty, but I'm burning you up with the Frozen poetry
Frigid power at my finger tips, dead with a slight twitch
I think you're mad that the queen just made you into her ice-bitch!
