

Chancer

Von Bondies

what you need is to take a chance dancin' days are a thing of the past mix it up and make her go Just to let her know
This is the night
to let it show
and if your feelin' wounded don't waste the time move right away 'cause fallin' down isn't that far to go Just to let her know
(hey now, hey now, take it to the other side)
You don't look so cool
but you look so alive
so alive
so oh oh oh oh oh oh oh alive (hey now, hey now take it to the other side)
you don't look so cool but you look so alive
so alive
so oh oh oh alive

mix it up and make her go
just to let her know
This is the night
wave her down on the dance floor you can't keep movin' anymore just scream out loud and we'll all see your pain we all feel the same
(hey now, hey now, take it to the other side)
You don't look so cool
but you look so alive
so alive
(hey now, hey now take it to the other side)
you don't look so cool but you look so alive
so alive
