

Have You Fed the Fish?

Badly Drawn Boy

The keys to your heart
Open the door to the world
You've got to give me two days
And woman I'll make you a girl Sometimes you've got to rewind to go forward
There's some good times around the corner
But have you fed the fish today?
Have you made your wish today? I need a new eiderdown
I want some binoculars
Don't want to be obvious
I want to surprise myself I've killed all the mockingbirds
I've wrestled the octopus
I came out with extra arms
To carry your baggage
