Fueled By Disappointment

North Side Kings

Every morning you put on a smile... Inside you feel all alone. With no support from your so-called friends who come around to get stoned. Been let down so many times, I KNOW YOU FEEL BETRAYED. I'll always be right by your side. I WON'T GO AWAY... No one sees underneath, no one sees the disappointment. You always put up a front that everything is fine. You act as though you're doing alright, ALL ALONE YOU CRY...
