Once More

Lexi Walker

Could it be, once so real to me
Surfacing memories inside
Curtains draw slowly, one by one
And show the way

To one forgotten story
Fragments here in my mind
Where life is a dream
And my dreams that I dream are alive
Once more

I'm whisked back to Neverland
Face to face with quivering stars
Wading through a sea of silver sky
I drift away

One forgotten story
Fragments here in my mind
Where life is a dream
And my dreams that I dream are alive
One forgotten feeling
Music lost in my soul
Searching for something to bring me back where I belong
Once more

I'm searching for something to bring me back where I belong
To one forgotten story
Fragments here in my mind
Where life is a dream
And my dreams that I dream are alive
One forgotten feeling
Music lost in my soul
Searching for something to bring me back where I belong
Once more
