

You've Done Nothing

Face to Face

Why don't? Why don't they mind?
You don't know what you want to be
You don't know what you want to do
Never going to amount to much of anything
So what's the difference if you win or lose? Well that's something, well isn't that something? Well you've done nothing wrong but it's never your fault
You've done nothing You don't care where your friends have gone
Because you never really needed them anyway Never going to be exactly who you are Because you try too hard to be just like them Well that's something, well isn't that something? Well you've done
nothing wrong but it's never your fault
You've done nothing
Well you've done nothing wrong but it's never your fault
You've done nothing You've got brains in your head and feet in your shoes
You can steer yourself anyway you choose
Well you're on your own and you know what you know
And it's up to you to decide, to decide just where you go Well that's something Well don't you even try 'cause there's something you can't deny Well you've done nothing wrong but it's never your fault
You've done nothing
Well you've done nothing wrong but it's never your fault
You've done nothing
