

Alone Again And

Departure Lounge

High over the hills to fly, and still
This must be the feeling I did will
Up here where the cradle rocks the night Hold it in my hand
Feel it in my heart
The twilight in your eye
Tells me I'm alone I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone Steer between the parting clouds that call
Wait for all the shooting stars to fall Quiver in voice
Tears on my shirt
Too much to say
No more than words I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone And no-one will be watching
Because no-one wants to know
And if I had three wishes
Which way would you go? I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
