Reaction

From Ashes Rise

To Sheer nothingness.
To the last breath of reckless abandon.
A flash to eclipse millenniums and wash away the footsteps of faithless fatalities.
To sheer nothingness, rattling the walls with the winds of decay, while on the winds of change, the ice age is scorched in the warheaded reign.
(one final Breath)
Shine on overreaction.
(one final Stand)
Shine the lights of destruction.
A reaction shines on, forever in black.
Razing the shadows and tearing silence to shreds.
Into the sky,
Suicide,
No Turning back.
To the victors go the spoils,
to the victims go the spoils.
