Ms. Wallace (Outro) [2016 Remastered]

The Notorious B.I.G.

As a child Christopher was outspoken when it suited him at times he was quiet
And of course he was mischievous as all little boys are as a young man he likes
To do everything he liked to read he likes to be with his friends as young kids
Are young boys he enjoyed life everything that would make him happy are comfortable
He would do but mostly he enjoyed being with his friends and family his early Inspirations toward rap music were the LLs of the world the sugar hills the Mr.
Magic's and the fat boys of the rap channel those were all the things I heard in The house even though I called it noise and banging I know now that it is a Accepted musical art form I was a single parent I raised my son on my own his Father had no influence on his decision towards the musical outlet are career he Chose my son had a mind of his own even if his father was around he would have Turned to rap he loved music he loved rap at a point in my sons life he Developed paranoia about death and about the dying we are living in a world of I'm
Perfect human beings we are greed jealousy and envy or manifested by what Others have accomplished in life my son was very very much aware of that he Appreciated his station in life on the directions in which he was going are Traveling on the other hand there were others who I should uhh use the hip hop Phrase player hating and I think that is what resulted in his paranoia if I had To change anything in my sons life that would have allowed him to be here
Today I would have deterred him from a career in music I'm aware that millions
Appreciated his music millions loved his music be that it may if he hadn't Chosen that life style that career my son would be alive today if I could sum
Up Christopher in one word the word would be generous th thing that my son
Loved most about life was the fact that he was in a position to help position
To share position to give to others who needed to others who wanted to others
Appreciated the gifts that he gave that's what he loved most
