Never Gonna Love Again

Anastacia

Last night I woke up in a daze
Dreamt I had lost you for always
If it came to be a reality it'd be the end of the show
I would find a rest 'cause the emptiness would never let me go
I know there'll never be another you and me
My heart beats only for you, I'll never love again
(Never gonna love, never gonna love, never gonna love again)
I'll never love again
(Never gonna love, never gonna love, never gonna love again)
I'll never love again
Looking in your eyes, I'm not alone
Can't believe how much our love can take and still grow
And we both have seen all the wedding rings just cast aside in the rain
It's so clear to me with my history I can't go back there again
I know there'll never be another you and me
My heart beats only for you, I'll never love again
(Never gonna love, never gonna love, never gonna love again)
I'll never love again
(Never gonna love, never gonna love, never gonna love again)
I'll never love again
I know there'll never be another you and me
My heart beats only for you, I'll never love again
(Never love again)
I'll never love again
(Never love again)
