

The Cycle

Azriel

You're riding up the elevator

Shirt tucked in right

No space

Head case

Up against the street lights

This is your world walking high and mighty

I got news for you and you ain't gonna like it

A five second replay

Yeah, this is what you look like

You're so predictable

Yeah, yeah...

You're so typical

You're so predictable

Yeah, yeah...

Dah dah dahdah dah dah dahdah dah

Heavy breath

Crooked heart

Shoes tied

Up straight

Same old push and pull

You got no time

You can't be late

This is your life

Breaking teeth for smiles

One for the game

One just for the cycle

Well, all those hours in the mirror

The more you say

I hope you hear

You're so predictable

Yeah, yeah...

You're so typical

You're so predictable

Yeah, yeah...

Dah dah dahdah dah dah dahdah dah

(Dah dah dahdah)

(Yeah...)

It's me looking back at you now

You think you've got it figured it out
But you're so predictable
 Yeah...
You're so predictable
 Yeah, yeah...
You're so typical
You're so predictable
 Yeah, yeah...
Dah dah dahdah dah dah dahdah dah
 Yeah, yeah...
You're so typical
You're so predictable
 Yeah, Yeah...
Dah dah dahdah dah dah dahdah dah
