Those Were the Nights

Hunter Brothers

Hey,
Do you wanna go back in time?
A little rewind in your mind 2002-2005
Hey, do you remember how we used to roll?
With the rhythm of the radio.

Nowhere to be
Nowhere to go
Joyride in mama's car
Out to the reservoir.
Yeah, we were small-town stars.

When we danced on the edge of a silhouette sky,
And we painted our dreams in the sand.
When we shouted "forever" like we'd never die.
Those were the nights.

When we danced on the edge of a silhouette sky,
And we painted our dreams in the sand.
When we shouted "forever" like we'd never die.
Those were the nights.

Oh, there was magic in the air,
There were memories everywhere,
We were way too young to care.
Love wasn't easy then, we haven't lost it yet.
You know I'll never forget

When we danced on the edge of a silhouette sky
And painted our dreams in the sand
When we shouted "forever" like we'd never die
Those were the nights

When we danced on the edge of a silhouette sky
And we painted our dreams in the sand
When we shouted 'forever' like we'd never die.
Those were the night.

Those were the nights
When we danced on the edge of a silhouette sky

And we painted our dreams in the sand
When we shouted forever like we'd never die.
Those were the nights

When we danced on the edge of a silhouette sky
And we painted our dreams in the sand
When we shouted forever like we'd never die.
Those were the nights

Those were the days
Those were the times
Those were the memories that we made
Those were the nights

Those were the days
Those were the times
Those were the memories that we made
Those were the nights

Those were the nights

Lyrics Submitted by Christi Long

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/