Ain't Lettin' Go

Josh Kelley

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Well, I know you're probably out
You're probably movin' on
'Cause a girl like you with a heart that true
Just shouldn't be aloneI'm just right down the street
At our old familiar spot
Yeah, I've probably had too many beers
And one too many shotsBut that don't mean
That I don't mean these wordsOh, I can't seem to get you off my mind
It don't matter how hard I try, always end up here
Baby, can't you hear my tears
Pourin' through this payphone line?Just too hard to say goodbye
I thought that you should know
I still love you and I ain't lettin' go
I can't let you goWell, I know I made mistakes
I know I've hurt you bad
I gave you reasons to stop believin'
In what we used to haveAnd if you can't forgive me
I guess I'll understand
But no, I won't give up hope
That you'll be in these arms againOh, can't you tell
This hell I'm going throughOh, I can't seem to get you off my mind
It don't matter how hard I try, always end up here
Baby, can't you hear my tears
Pourin' through this payphone line?Just too hard to say goodbye
I thought that you should know
I still love you and I ain't lettin' goThe bartender just screamed last call
So I guess I'll be headin' home
But before I hang up this phoneI can't seem to get you off my mind
It don't matter how hard I try, I always end up here
Baby, can't you hear my tears
Pourin' through this payphone line?It's just too hard to say goodbye
I thought that you should know

I still love you and I ain't lettin' goI miss you babe, I miss you babe
You're still the best damn thing I've ever had
And I want you back, please come back
I still love you and I ain't lettin' goI can't let you go and I ain't lettin' go
I ain't lettin' you go
I still love you and I ain't lettin' go
